I got this game for 10 cents last winter sale would say this is a great game. Nice touch to the great game, that adds another layer of gameplay. My first campaign was as Yellow Turban and I had a lot of fun.. Fantastic pixel art.

- Challenging, but not sadistic platformer puzzles.
- Deep and creepy atmosphere.
- Lots of secrets.
- Some spooky jumpscare.
- Literally preaches Satanism.

666/10, not a single thing not to love.. Very good game but lack of protection and tutorial on new commanders (deadly fully engineered cutter here)

It would be great to have a linear story option for new players to play and get reward while learning how to play this game. For example: 10 missions with different objectives. Each objectives provide a option for commanders to choose their own ship or provided outfitted ship to proceed the mission. The mission have detailed HUD guidelines and voice guidelines. Missions can be hunting, assassination, trading, yeah you get it. After finishing each mission the commander will get a small loan of a million dollar no jk they get some credits and unlock the manual for that type of activity. These missions also lock commanders in solo play and teleport that player into a specific system to do the mission. When finished they'll teleported back to the original system. This whole story could be a memory flashback of one of the superpower leader. This can further enhance the background simulation and universe building. Also I think the jump effects are\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665please change.. Terrible, no audio no matter what option you choose. . . after I stopped using it I switched to shadowplay and that's not working at the moment and this didn't produce audio.. EDIT

Now I was able to get some support, Normad was able to explain to me why the prices of the DLC are so expensive and how to get them cheaper. Now since the DLCs are cheaper, it makes me enjoyed enough with this game to give it a thumbs up. Thanks again Normad! :)

Prior review V

DO NOT BUY THIS GAME IF IT IS OVER 5 DOLLARS. This game has very little gameplay, while I like it, I think it is over priced. If it added in the DLCs, then it would be a fair price. Even if they made the price of each DLC a dollar or 2 less, it would have enough content.

I dislike minimal gameplay in this, only if DLCs were in it I would give this a thumbs up. I really wanna drive that car and do whatever that other one is (Im confused on what it even is) but three dollars for each one? No way mister.

What write :(just first map(dead sea) work other two just error(windows 8.1,radeon R9 m290x)

Firsr map Dead sea : load ok

Second Map Airfield :Failed to establish context !Couldn t establish context:loadLevel failed

Third map Forest : Failed to establish context !Couldn t establish context:loadLevel failed

(rubbish)

. This is the demo, it's a good puzzle game. It is bit creepy, but it is quite easy. Can't wait to try out the full release. Which is Nevrosa: Escape.. If you really want to enjoy playing GBDNATE you need to stop thinking of it as a fetish. There is a really fun story behind boobs and males turning into females. The game obviously has it's cons. The stories could be more complex and there is just too much text to scroll, but I would highly recommend it if you want to see an unusual story and relax a bit.. Really good RPG. You get to go Magic man, or build into tech, theres like 12 different schools of magic with 5 spells in each school, a bunch of\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665you can craft. I'd really recommend giving it a go, its pretty cheap especially on sale.

Only issue is some slowdown but it can be fixed with some .ini edits, there is also a pretty good mod called Arcanum Multiverse that makes the game run and look better

<https://steamcommunity.com/sharedfiles/filedetails/?id=755396888>. Simple but good . i really recommend that game. 9/10 One of the best escape room games I've played.

If you get the urge to look for a hint RESIST. Everything is solveable with patience and logic.. Truly a good game i really liked it thank you so much. Dunno how to explain it, its just really fun has heaps of stuff to unlock and challanges to do plus 29 achivements that are mostly all very easy but some take time to complete. Also theres different types of golf clubs and able to create and customize your own worm xD
